

Weekly Newsletter for The Appliance Outlet
by Robert Ehrig

This week we are LOADED, and I mean, with appliances !!!

Thermador and Bosch dropped a big shipment on us.
and so did DCS this week.

There is No way to get it all in this newsletter, so I am taking some liberties this week when it comes to specific items.
I will do my best to tell you generally what we have, so you may have to ready more then normal.

Hurry in for best selection, these highly defamed items will not last.
If you need more pictures of anything, please email me back.

Thanks for accepting my newsletters,

Robert Ehrig
