by Robert Ehrig

We we have entered BBQ season and we are LOADED with BBQ items.

Recently, as most of you noticed, we started selling Lynx Product.
I still have a lot from last week and we are getting more probably next week.

I have several drawer systems by DCS from the last load and a few of the 48" Grill heads.

If you ever wanted to own a NICE bbq, wether you build it in or keep it on a cart for portable use, now is the time.

I also let my Red marker go absolutely crazy on some select items that have been here to long.

Its time to take advantage of these great deals.

Hurry in for best selection

thanks for accepting my newsletters,

Robert Ehrig
