

Weekly Newsletter
Appliance Outlet
6-13-15
by Robert Ehrig

So this week we need to clear some space and reduce our inventory levels.

We will be offering some incredible deals on specific items.

Of course its all super nice, but its time to make some room

I will also be showing some items that may have gotten missed in past newsletters.

If you have any question about anything,
please email me so you are not left wondering.

Nothing scheduled for this week or next right now, but we never know

Thanks for accepting my newsletters,
