Appliance Outlet

4-22-17

By Robert Ehrig

We got a nice shipment of DCS in too. A couple ranges and a small BBQ

I still have these La Cornue ranges (not sure why) ,

but you still have an chance to get one.

We are getting another Viking load today.

Let me know if you are looking for something in particular.

We are still loaded with product and have a lot of great items to choose from.

Please let me know if I can help put a package together for you.

I can send pricing and pictures to you or anyone you know that may need appliances.

Thanks for accepting my newsletters,
