By Robert Ehrig

Hello again,

Well is everybody ready to experience the solar eclipse on Monday?

That also happens to be my birthday. I hope that is or isn't a sign. LOL

We are getting ready to get a few big shipments next week from a new MFG. Décor

But the big news is this:

We are having a “Solar Sale” this week and the prices are going to Eclipse you.

I will show as much as I can, but there are several more great mark downs in store.

Thanks for accepting my newsletters,

Robert Ehrig
